ByDzyne has added another prestigious honor to its countless achievements, by being rewarded with MarCom's Platinum Award for its Back Office success and teamwork.

MarCom is a highly competitive international creative competition, which judges marketing and communication professionals and businesses based on their creativity, group efforts, standard, and substance in operations.

The Platinum Award, Marcom's HIGHEST award, is given to the business and communications firms that display the most distinguished quality, and was presented only to the top 17 percent of nearly 5,000 entrants this year.

ByDzyne shares the winners' circle with other multi-national well-known companies like Qualcomm, DELL Technologies, Mastercard, Morgan Stanley and Pepsico just to name a few.

This award is proof that when field and corporate experience merge, it makes for a power-packed combination. ByDzyne, led by an Executive team that has over 150+ years of combined experience and have generated billions in sales in the industry, know exactly what their Brand Ambassadors needs to flourish. Each of their invaluable knowledge and expertise has clearly translated to the effectiveness of their Back Office, as it has created an exceptional experience and service for all of their Brand Ambassadors worldwide.
